

Ronald Gilbert Warren

February 25, 1932 - October 8, 2018

Cemetery

Spring Grove Cemetery

4521 Spring Grove Ave
Cincinnati, OH, 45232

Events

OCT Visitation 09:00AM - 11:00AM

15

Allen Temple AME

7030 Reading Road, Cincinnati, OH, US, 45237

OCT Funeral 11:00AM

15

Allen Temple AME

7030 Reading Road, Cincinnati, OH, US, 45237

Comments

“ Our heartfelt condolences to the family, for our family has been a part of this family since my sister and I was born so we share the departing of “Bunny “ as we called him a smile always on his face. Mr. Warren, greatest love was his wife Dean, they would dress up and go to many affairs and he would look proudly at her all the time, instead of the cameraman with a twinkle in his eyes you could see this on their pictures, Gloria, his baby girl his heart his Debutant whom he proudly presented to society stole his heart the day she was born, then came the greatest joy of all his granddaughter that made his Earthly life complete, Bunny had a passion in his life Baseball, he was one of the First Negro Baseball Players, this man has a Legacy. Mr. Warren, has fought a long battle of being sick many tiresome days, till God, saw that his footprints were getting lighter in the sand so he said “Ronald my son, you have fought your battle well, here on your Eartly home today you have earned your Golden Wings so that you can take your flight to your Heavenly Home. So, family rejoice for our love one has been reborn, no more pain, sleepless nights, worrying about his love ones but you all showed him in your strength that everything was okay and as that old song goes “IT IS WELL WITH MY SOUL, IT IS WELL “. Just remember the old days the fun time the future that you share that SMILE, TWINKLE IN HIS EYES, and how he would always say NO and then you got what you asked for, He Loved His Ladies ! So family BE BLESS, STAY BLESS and GOD BLESS , this is what Aunt Bea always said, Dean, continue to keep the FAITH, STRENGTH that you have and always BELIEVE, jackie,(Danny) & Deborah(Darrell) Brown - October 14, 2018 at 12:57 PM